CROCKERY SALE

Having purchased the entire stock of Crockery and China of the late J. K. Lynde estate of Williamstown, Vt., we have it now displayed on our clearance tables at prices that will move it quick. Much of it is marked less than wholesale prices.

Space won't admit of enumerating prices on so varied a stock, but a cordial invitation is extended to everybody to call at our store and look for themselves where prices are all marked in plain figures. We bought it low and have marked it at a very small margin of profit so to turn it back into money quick.

The early investigator gets the plums, so all come early and share together equally. Sale begins Monday morning, July 27th and continues until all is sold.

Don't Forget That We Are Giving 30 Per Cent Discount on our remaining stock of Hammocks to close this discount from our regular low prices brings them down to about jobber's wholesale prices.

AN EXCITING TIME.

But Luckily No Serious Injuries Were Sustained.

St. Albans, July 27.—There was a lively runaway on Bishop and Church streets yesterday afternoon when a single livery rig, driven by William Pratt of Bishop street and occupied by himself, his wife, and another lady, came down Bishop street at a fast clip. The buggy began to sway as it turned south into Church street and in front of St. Luke's Church, overturned with a crash, throwing the occupants in all directions. The horse dragging the overturned buggy galloped madly across Fairfield street and cleared itself from the brick house near Brown's sheds. The horse then eloped across the entrance to Brown's stables and struck on a projecting platform throwing him a complete somersault back into Fairfield street. The occupants of the buggy were severely shaken up but not badly hurt. The horse received some injuries and the buggy will have to go to the repair shop.
